

Flynn's Fast White Lady

DE Wyatt

In the early hours of Saturday morning at the Partaay nightclub in the heart of Soho Flynn Matthews, Hollywood actor and all round hunk was filmed in flagrante delicto with the fast white lady herself: cocaine.

Celeb's Against Drugs poster boy for the last two years is seen snorting lines of the white powder, drug of choice for the rich, famous and privileged. Looking worse for wear he can be heard slurring his expletive ridden words.

It seems highly likely that his role with CAD, some may say aptly named, is under review. Although lead drug expert, Roger Price believes that Flynn's brush with drugs is what the campaign needs. A repentant poster boy who knows what it's like to battle his demons, someone addicts can relate to or at the very least put off any young people considering trying illegal drugs.

The video certainly shows an out of control individual that surely no one would want to emulate.

His fans, know as femme fatales, have jumped to his defence on Flynn's Fan Forum and on Twitter many citing the stress of work and some denying it is him altogether in the leaked video. The Metropolitan Police have said they will be questioning Mr Matthews with regards to the alleged offence and the validity of the footage. Mr Matthews and his team were unavailable for comment at the time of print.
